Q8: What is the Selection Committee looking for?

Several factors are considered when selecting finalists, business success being one of them. Community and Professional Leadership is also an important factor. We want to ensure that we have a diverse group of finalists in terms of business niche, cultural background and geographic location. Finally, we look for compelling stories such as interesting business strategies or obstacles overcome during any project execution.

Q9: What is the Selection Process?

Initially all applications are screened by the Selection Committee to ensure all necessary information has been provided. The Selection Committee reviews applications, weighing the factors mentioned above. Shortlisted candidates are vetted through Jury for ethical violations or disciplinary actions. If a semi finalist is disqualified for any reason, a replacement is chosen from the list.

FAQS

Q10: Can my broker / colleague / association / clients provide supporting letters?

Recommendation letters in support of your application can be submitted but are not required. They must be submitted along with the application form and should be on specific letterhead. No e-mail, faxes, or hard copies on plain paper will be accepted. A maximum of three letters may be submitted.

Q11: May I submit other supporting documents (awards, certificates, etc)?

Due to the high volume of applications we receive, we cannot accept other supporting documents. The Selection Committee will contact you, if clarification or additional information is needed.

Q12: Why do you ask about ethics violations and state regulatory actions? Will either eliminate me from consideration?

Our finalists represent the next generation of industry leaders and as such they should set an example of professional and ethical behavior. An ethical violation or disciplinary action does not result in automatic disqualification. The Selection Committee will consider the circumstances and weigh the incident against other factors in your applications.

Q13: How will I know if my application was received?

An e-mail acknowledgement will be sent to the address listed in the application to confirm the receipt of the submitted form. If it's determined that the application is incomplete or missing some information a second e-mail will be sent.

Q14: How and when will I be notified of the Selection Committee's decision?

All applicants will be notified of their status via e-mail or phone by September 10th, 2018

Q15: How will the winners be announced?

The winners will be announced at the Golden Brick Awards ceremony on September 28th 2018. at Hotel Marriot, Al Jaddaf, Dubai, UAE. A press release will be sent to selected local, national and international media outlets
